

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Favorable reconsideration of the present application is respectfully requested.

The present amendment corrects an obvious error in the claims. The specification describes a printing device or method for use when printing with plural types of media. See, e.g., p. 1, lines 13-15. The amendment filed on July 7, 2007 erroneously recited plural printing “mechanism” types of printing media rather than plural printing “medium” types of printing media. The present amendment corrects this obvious error. The entry thereof is respectfully requested

Respectfully submitted,
